The Best Deceptions

—Dashboard Confession

Cat Colls... All you girls who think you're Barbie, Merida, look no further than we have in class. You can find Scott Caruthers rolling down hills with his friends in the hall, or by just playing around. (He's a smart!)

Who Do You Think You Look Like?
"If I was a guy it would be Joey Ramone."
—Erin Ward-Williams,
grade nine.

I think that she resembles Diana Krall the Jazz singer.
—Mrs. Mottola
History Dept.

Do you see SUMMing similar? That's right! One of Hara's very own guitarists, Simon-Jake Robinson, is almost identical to Sum 41's lead guitarist, Chris Carr.

Approx. all around! Jennifer Conditin has a smiling resemblance to singer-songwriter, Fiona Apple. We believe that she has the hood for a serious eye roll.

Michelle Fisher: "Can you please tell us how you look so much like Michelle Williams? Don't you think she looks really lovely for someone who's not a singer?"

What's on Deck? King's Dan Olszewski and Brenton Wood (Justin Quigley) show more than a hardass. You can often find Dan showing his vocal talents, or participating, in the hallway and gym.

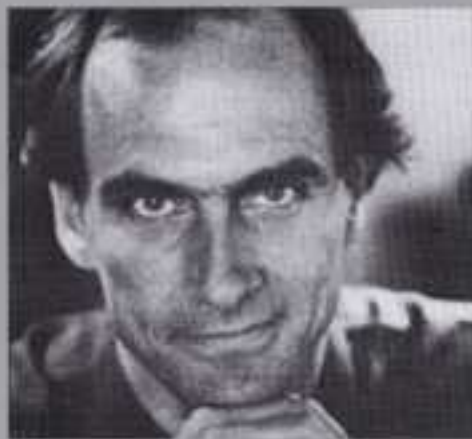

What do you think you look like?
"Because of my long hair and nose, people say that I look like Ringo Star."
-Dan Arget, grade eleven

What do you think you look like?
"Well, I think that he looks like Dan Arget."
-Kathryn Beake, Grade 12

-Kathryn Beake
Grade 12

Ray Feltz Swing your partners 'round and 'round...
Mr. Feltz runs three sessions of our country folk singer James Taylor.

Not Your Typical Garage Band... Outshined Members: Nick Dymond (vocals), Kevin Davis (bass), Sons Kingston (acoustic), and Flex Hinkle (drums). You've probably seen Outshined play at Keep the Beat or last year's Christmas assembly. Outside of school you might find them at the Emo, the Cathedral, The Potato festival and the Schenberg fair. To learn more about the band, their next show or to request a copy of their self-titled debut check out their website <http://taden.to/outshined>.

Hip hop beats and a smile. Amanda Zelina, established hip hop artist spends her free time with headphones and a thesaurus. Maybe you've seen the performances of Lady Phynx, her stage name, at the Opera House, The Reverb, Playdium or Hipsonic Studios. Amanda's intense lyrics won her second place and four hours recording time in Battle of the Bands at the Opera House. She's so good that she had the whole Opera house, filled with twenty metal fans screaming her name! Amazing Amanda also divulges into other things hip hop, she is also an established graffiti artist.

Everybody enjoys a little hardcore punk rock now and then. Rufus Cowan is the bass guitarist in his band MSG (like the Chinese food additive). The other members of MSG are from Rufus' old school in Orangeville. You might have seen their performances at the Opera House, or even at King's band Keep the Beat.

Rockin' Robin Hood

September 11, 12, and 13, 2002

For the fourth consecutive year, grade nine orientation camp, also known as "Roc-King", was held at Camp Robin Hood. The students, mentors, and many teachers involved were lucky enough to spend three days outside in the warm sun, participating in a variety of different group and individual activities. From swimming and rock-climbing to archery and canoeing, there was definitely something for everyone. The camp was held during the second week of school over three full days. The grade nines showed up Wednesday morning, each feeling a little nervous about the whole experience ahead of them, but by Thursday, everyone was feeling a little more comfortable and having more fun! After some "unfortunate" mishaps canoeing, involving drenched grade nines and TAP Mentors alike, everyone headed to the lunch tent to talk about the morning's hilarious events. No one will ever forget the extremely competitive rounds of "Name That Tune" between the Mentors, who desperately tried to score their group's first choice at the food. Even more memorable was the bus challenge, where each bus created their own unique chant to represent the TAP groups riding on each of the five buses.

Roc-King 2002 was a great bonding time for the grade nines, and many new friendships were established through the challenges the groups faced with each day's activities. It was a rewarding experience that will not be forgotten for years to come.

A Blind Man's Journey: Bev Peel, Elisha Ottaway, Amanda Nicholson, and Leslie Nichols are entertained by the antics of a blindfolded Andrew Rigotti at the ropes course.

A Hop Skip and a Jump: Stefan Kopetski attempts to make a big splash by performing his own version of the penguin dive. His efforts are truly entertaining, but will this dive be enough to win him first place in the diving contest? The onlookers chant "Chitty! Chitty! Chitty!" but no one is sure why.

Taking a Time Out: Grade nine students Krista Snider and Jessica Rombhajan along with mentors Rachel Hiedel and Krysten Peacock take a break from a grueling game of tennis.

Keeping Afloat: Mentor Michelle Vadari and grade nine student Nicole Phillips work together to steer their canoe through the murky waters of the pond without tipping it!

Like Sordines in a Can: Alicia Bersa, Valerie Edmunds, Pat Sahen, and Don Barron pack themselves on to a tiny piece of mat, in any way possible, as a team effort to successfully "cross the river".

King of the Jungle: It's a monkey, it's an ape, no, it's Don Barron, as he swings high above the heads of his TAP group.

Helping Hands: Natalya Danyliw provides a much-needed pull to Timothy Alexander to get him over the wall. Just a few more of his peers to go and everyone will be safely over.

Helping Hands: Danielle Inglis conquers the low wall with the aid of her Rocking group, including mentor Mordie Scott and peer Caitlin Hurley. She is confident in the abilities of her fellow group members to get her to the top in record time.

One Happy Buxide: Katarina Raitonen, Brittney Muir, Krysten Peacock, Jamie-Lynn Forbes, and Jessica Bortom are enthusiastically awaiting their arrival at Camp Robin Hood. Their bus ride just finished practicing their cheer and is ready to participate in the afternoon's "Bus Cheer-Off".

The "Holy" Grail of Art

Tattoos and Piercings

Here at K.C.S.S., students not only show school spirit, but they show personal spirit and individuality through their attitudes and unique appearances. Tattoos and piercings are just another way beyond clothes and accessories to show this. While it may seem like the cool thing to do, when asked why they chose to get their body art, many answered based on their own personal reasons. Students at King aren't afraid to show themselves and let their personalities show. It's not only a rebellious thing to do against their parents' wishes, it's a step towards greater responsibilities and independence. It's about being who you want to be.

Everybody wonders why people want to get tattoos. For them the answer is complicated. For us however, the answer is easy. "Because we want to." As a teen, we don't care what other people think as much as we care about being ourselves and doing what we want to do. For us it is our chance to shine.

Connected at the nips Of all piercings, belly-button piercings on girls seem to be the most common of all. Although they are common, it is the unique accessory the person chooses to wear that make them so stylish. Steph Beekhuisen and Alessia D'Agostino have no problem accomplishing this.

WHY DID YOU CHOOSE TO GET THE TATTOO PIERCING THAT YOU DID?

"Babes. To impress babes!"
-Scott Carruthers

"Ladybugs are for good luck and three is my lucky number."
-Amanda Moschitti

"Because I'm a rebel. Mommy and daddy say no! I say yes!"
-Angela McLorinan

"It was just time to get one!"
-Chris Hanes

"I thought it was cute!"
-Shannon Licastro

Look at me! Angela McLorinan has no fear sticking her tongue out for everyone to see. Although the fact of the piercing is cool, it must have hurt at a little at first. Now that it is done however, she seems to enjoy its positive responses.

Friends forever, similar together: Many people tend to follow in the footsteps of their peers, but only if friends begin to look alike after spending time together. Dary Loony and Gelshan Abdoulais have grown very close over the course of their highschool years. They surely have their own reasons for getting it done, but their similar nose piercings show that true friends do think alike.

Can you guess who these belong to?

Shannon Licastro and Sylvia Bottigieg have grown to be best friends over the years. Their similar likenesses show the common likeness between the two with Shannon's unique tattoo proving that even the most of friends can be unique in their own individual ways. The in-style piercings prove one point, but Shannon's two-in-one style proves that she is even more unique.

Eye catching: It's not everywhere that you see somebody with an eyebrow piercing. Tony Facciolo is just one of the few K.C.S.S. students who make this school even more exciting.

SMELLS LIKE TEEN SPIRIT

September 30 - October 4

Spirit Week at KCSS was the first week of October, and it helped to both start the school year off right, and it also got everyone involved. The Student Council worked very hard at getting everything arranged, and they really achieved exactly what they wanted! The first day included door decorating, where the classes decorated their doors on the outside, and students also bought paw buttons first period to show their support for the school. The next day everyone tried to wear green and gold, and it was also "Put your Paws on Me" day. The whole point of this day was that girls were all to wear one paw around their neck, and they were not supposed to speak to any guys at all. If they did, the guys would then get the girl's paw. The goal for the guys was to collect as many paws as they could. Family Feud was the next event of the week. It was teacher vs. student teams, and at times it got pretty competitive! The senior auction was very entertaining. Students and teachers paid some big bucks just to have the senior they bid on become their servants for a day. The last event of the week was karaoke at lunch. That was an especially funny event, because the seniors were all decked out in some pretty interesting costumes, due to the auction the day before! All in all, it was a great to see everyone in such high spirits!

Congratulations to Mr. Perkin's Gr 11 Technical Design class for winning the door decorating contest.

It's on Now! Sara Persia is challenging the teacher team she is up against in Family Feud, while her team of Sara Sanjakhdar, Tella Whitaker, Lindsay Abbott and Ashley Thorn look confidently, and intimidatingly at the teachers. Poor teachers!

Livin' it up: Nya Intiaz leads while her friends Rudrey Reid, Olivia Spanos, and Gabriel Rodmoutele back her up on Karaoke in the caf.

Let the bidding begin: You can always count on Michelle Woodhouse to be a part of any school event. Here she is being auctioned off at the senior auction with her new pair of funky bright glasses.

Natalia Rotaonda paints students' faces to show King spirit. She is one who has King pride written all over her.

Damian Rose shows his school spirit. He poses with the many pins he collected from female students on "Put Your Paws On Me" day.

Mrs. Mattala's Gr. 11 World History class wrapped up Kyle Difebo as an Egyptian mummy and put him in a tomb as a part of the door decorating contest.

THE LIONS WERE A "THRILLER" ON HAL

Halloween was sure scary this year. An outstanding number of people dressed up to show the true King City spirit. There were lions and tigers and bears, oh my! Well, not really... but there were very impressive costumes! Lauren Mumford won best female costume award for being a Geisha, and Tim Alexander won best costume for males by dressing up as an Science teacher. The best group award was given to Matt Baker and Eric Donohue for dressing up as hicks. Best costume awards for teachers was awarded to Ms. Mottola and Mr. Sebastian. Luckily all students ended Halloween without a spell casted on them. Hocus Focus!

Good thing we have the student council running our school and not some crazy wackos?! The very well dressed include Torie Boynton, Cam Norman, Tiziana Piccinni, Catie Lane, Megan Rmedeo, Sarah Emmett, Charlene McMan, Mork Bevenuto, Sandip Randhawa, Leana Mistry and Steph Fisher.

"Girls just wanna have fun!" exclaims Michelle Backhouse as she poses her 80's style outfit. She brings a new meaning to a Cynth Lauper look-alike! She really shows off her "True colours."

I can fly, I can fly! Mr. Baifman shows off his feminine side in his pink little tutu. Where did you ever find that Mr. Baifman? Well, Do we want to know the answer?

Rock-a-by-baby, BRB? Shane Jones is a pretty big baby. I guess even in highschool some people need a soother. Carolyn Macfithie sure knows how to babysit.

Flutter, Flutter. Out from the heavens come Katelyn Boone and Malissa Scott. Watch out! They might sprinkle some magical fairy dust on you!

OWEEN!!

"They did the mash!
They did the monster mash!"

"The Beverly Hillbillies" that go to King City Secondary School? No it's just the King City buns. Sarah Emmett, Eric Donohue and Matt Baker. I wonder if they know how to round up cattle? MOOO!

Who ya gonna call? Ghostbuster! These Ghostbusters Kevin Napp, Ricky Bogatek, Dave Dilaria, Andrew Sellar will be there in a flash.

Wow that's gruesome! The cardboard must be really stiff. I wonder what kind of science experiment Ms. Francis is conducting?

Imagine finding these presents under your Christ. Tibothea Dubblestyn, Urva Naik, Michael Davis and Nick Rakovsky await Santa under the tree. Santa can't drive through the leaves. Merry Christmas in the fall!

Island In the Sun

Students enjoyed a Night of Fun, Fashion and Friends!

It may have been cold and snowy outside, but the sun was shining brightly at this year's Hawaiian-themed semi-formal. Students gathered at the Hollywood Princess in Woodbridge for a night of dinner and dancing. The Students of King City Secondary were unrecognizable as they shed their casual wardrobe and donned a unique assortment of fun and elegant formalwear. The hall was filled with the warm, balmy feeling of a tropical oasis and students were presented with colourful leis to enhance the island atmosphere. Balloons, decorations, and backdrops also boosted the authenticity of the island experience. The chic, stylish crowd met the exhilarating affair with enthusiasm and thoroughly enjoyed the fun and excitement of the much anticipated event. "I really liked the theme this year. It was something new and original and gave us a break from the freezing weather outside" commented grade twelve student Katrina Wright when asked about her opinion of the occasion. With everyone looking and feeling their best, nobody would argue the success of this year's semi-formal. A night spent with friends and away from the pressures of school was just what everyone needed. It was a remarkable experience that will remain in the memories of all for many years to come.

Love is in the air! Teresa Jurisovic and Chris Glasco enjoy a little time off the dance floor to rest their feet. They may be tired, but the night is young and they will be back on the dance floor in no time. No matter how tired they may be, they are all smiling.

The Beach Girls! Dressed to kill, Leana Misty, Sandip Randhawa, Neelu Shorma, Danielle Chiodia, Carl Buech and Kavita Dhamrait soak up the sun at semi-formal. The happy group flashed their pearly whites on a short break from dancing and mingling. Looking great girls!

Bermuda, Bahamas come on pretty mammal Toryn Stephens and Kristen Peacock enjoy the island atmosphere at semi-formal. "It's a very warm and welcoming theme and atmosphere. I'm having a lot of fun!" Kristen Peacock comments. Toryn Stephens adds, "I think the leis are a good idea."

Square Dance! Stephania Fisher, Colin MacGregor, Tella Whittaker and Lindsay Abbott are a few of the many "stars" of the Holiday Assembly. In a skit poking fun at "Schomberg kids," they reinact cow tipping.

I'm getting nothing for Christmas! Jaime Riton and Tella Whittaker pose as Mr. Matwijec and Ms. Nelson at the holiday assembly. Their resemblance to the teachers is striking! Will "Ms. Nelson's" wishes be fulfilled this year, or has she been a naughty girl?

Santa Claus is coming to town! Mr. Matwijec poses as Santa Claus and listens to the Christmas wishes of the boys and girls at King City Secondary School. Can't he make a great mail Santa Claus? Valerie Fisher and Shea Montgomery share their wishes in hopes that they will come true.

Jingle Bell Rock

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas...

The students of King City Secondary school decked the halls with holiday cheer on December 20, 2002. The graduating class of 2003 worked hard to arrange a holiday assembly to spread the festive spirit. The assembly consisted of a series of skits that poked fun at the various aspects of student life. The audience was captivated by the hilarious themes and extreme talent of the actors and actresses. Students were highly enthusiastic about skits depicting their hometown, no matter how greatly exaggerated. Viewer's agree that this year's holiday assembly by far exceeded previous expectations.

In addition to the holiday assembly, King City Secondary also received a visit from jolly old St. Nick. Dressed in red from head to toe, Mr. Matwijec made the perfect Santa Claus. Students had the opportunity to capture the moment with a snapshot of themselves sitting on the big man's lap. The students liked this new version of Mr. Matwijec much better than his role as a high school teacher. However, there have been numerous complaints that Christmas wishes have not been met!

This season of giving is a time to forget our differences and all work together in order to create a joyful atmosphere within our school. Through our endeavours we achieved this goal and encouraged school spirit.

I'll Be There For You Cause You're There For Me Too

...as our lives change come whatever we will still be friends forever... Vitamin C

Friends are like sunshine on a cloudy day. With a simple smile they brighten up your day. They stand by your side through the good and the bad helping you through life's bends. A friend loves at all times and accepts you as you are. They offer you support and pick you up when you fall down. They share your joys, sorrows, fears, and dreams. When you cry, they may not know how to make you stop, but they will cry with you. A simple hug from them could turn your world rightside up. Don't take your friends for granted, because a good friend is hard to find. Friends will come in and out of your life but a true friend will leave footprints in your heart and make a difference in your life.

You're My Best Friend: Tasha Buchanan and Teila Whittaker, the best of friends for 6 years and counting.

Girls Nick Butt: Jessica Griffiths and Michelle Pereira show Hing that they are as strong as their friendship.

Sealed With A Kiss: May 1994 they are saying goodbye to the rest of us, but Candice Fife and Adriane Giacomini's friendship will remain right past graduation.

Friends: Has never seen you cry.
BEST friend: Has always had the best shoulder to cry on.
Friends: Borrow your stuff a few days then gives it back.
BEST friend: Has a closet full of your stuff from 2nd grade.
Friends: Only knows a few things about you.
BEST friend: Could write a biography on your whole life story.
Friends: Will leave you behind if that's what the crowd is doing.
BEST friend: Will ditch the crowd for you.

Four Of A Kind: These grade 12 girls, Karla Gersende, Pamela Whitcomb, Sydney Sheard and Regala Snider always have each other to depend on.

Attached From The Neck: From hangouts to clothing style, Tiffany DeHera and Kayla Whitaker have so much in common. "She's fun to party with," says Tiffany.

Full Of Laughs: Mya Intiaz and Teresa Norgine always find something to smile about. "We've been tight since the first day we met," says Teresa.

Inseparable: Sadaf Shikhand, Sandip Rana and Nasir Shams will leave Ring City the same way they came as one.

Bedrock Buddies: Bethany Wolf and Kerry Martinez are as close as The Flintstones. Betty and Wilma. "You can always find them together," says Haley Horeles Agor.

Fun In The Sun: Alex Krivov, Sam Emilio, Lauren Mintz and Vanessa Muzzo enjoy spending time with each other in the great outdoors.

Dreaming Of You... High School Sweethearts

Love is in the air at K.C.S.S. Throughout the year there has been many sad break-ups, emotional make-ups, and blossoming relationships. As some couples broke up after a year or a couple of months, new couples were constantly getting together. While walking down the halls at K.C.S.S. students were sure to find young love and high school sweethearts.

Prom, semi, and school dances were just a few of the places where you could be sure to find couples sharing moments that will last a lifetime. While Valentine's Day may just be another day of the year for many at K.C.S.S., for our couples it was a day they could express their feelings towards each other and cherish all the time they spent together.

While relationships in high school may not last, there will always be everlasting memories.

Students Favourite Love Songs:

All My Life - KC & Jo Jo
Mike Alonzi

Falling - Alicia Keys
Lana Molochnikov

Truly, Madly, Deeply - Savage Garden
Emina Begovic

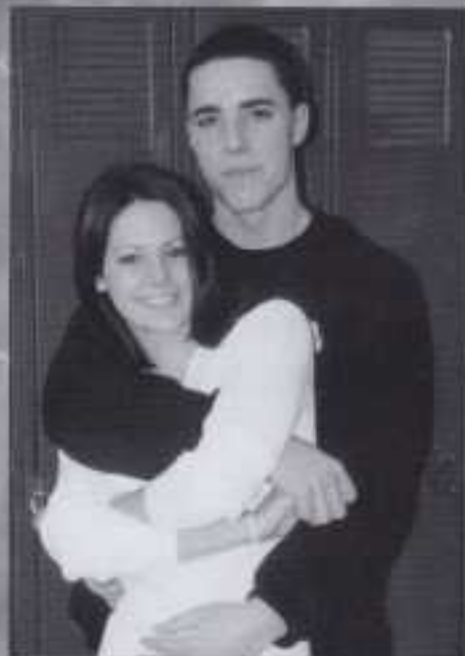

Ti Amo - Umberto Tozzi
Marie-Claire Spizziri

Don't Wanna Miss a Thing - Aerosmith
Talia Whittaker

Been Awhile - Staind
Ashley Thorn

Somebody to Love - Queen
Tosha Buchanan

I will always Love You - Whitney Houston
Olivia Vlasova

When people notice couples throughout the school, they definitely can't look past Jeff Simnett and Nicole Richard. "SHE'S GORGEOUS!" - Jeff
"I can't remember anytime that I've been happier than when I am beside him." - Nicole

Tarasa Jelsevic and Chris Olsson have been dating for less than a year but how can people not recognize this cute couple in the hallways. Although they only started dating last year there has always been chemistry between this couple. "My most memorable moment with Chris was February 14th when I ran up to him and kissed him in front of everyone and told him that I was his. That's when we realized our love had begun. Who knew love could be this great." - Tarasa
"I will never forget the first time I kissed her over Kristen's Gitz table (Nov. 14th in grade 9)." - Chris

Francine Nichols and Diego Pineda have been dating for two years and seven months. "People always ask me how I could stay with someone for so long and never get bored. Well I never get bored because he is crazy. He is always full of surprises and I love him for it." - Francine

"She is better than engines." Diego laughs.

Noah Kirov and Don Perry are one of the many couples in grade 11. They spend a lot of time together and can always be found with each other inside and outside of school. "Summer nights, sitting outside, watching the stars. He told me to pick a star in the sky and he would name it after me." - Noah and Don

Melissa Fuggieri and Daniel Fontana have been dating for thirteen months and are constantly seen by friends hugging and holding hands while walking throughout the school. "They're so cute together. I hope I am invited to their wedding in the future." - Michelle Occhiogrosso, a friend of Melissa's.

Jelena Frisic and Brian Baker can always be seen spending time together in between classes. "I just love spending time with her because she makes me happy." - Brian

"Over the summer I went to summer school and for our one month he drove to three different schools just to give me a rose. It was so cute!" - Jelena

We Are Family

How many times have you confused your friend for their younger sibling? King City has many siblings that may look and walk alike, but have nothing in common. Some barely acknowledge each other in the halls! There are many advantages to having a sibling that goes to the same school, like avoiding the bus ride by hitching a ride with your older brother, or passing on the tricks of the trade to your younger sister. However, sometimes having a mini-you isn't all that it's cut out to be. They get on your nerves, steal your CD's, and hog the phone line. However, through all the rivalry, it's nice to know that no matter what happens, you will always have someone there for you. Here at King, we have siblings that are, and will always be best friends... just as long as they return your best sweater!

Sister Sister: Sonja and Erica Schmidt smile for the camera with Claire and Sophie Garber, friends of both sets of sisters. Carly Marsh says, "After I look at Claire and Sophie's relationship, I see a close, fun, loving, tight sister relationship. I see them being more best friends than sisters. I wish I had a sister like that."

Lean on Me: Torie (OPC), Briar (gr. 10), and Cam (gr. 9) Boynton are closer than peas in a pod. "I think that we are closer than most sisters," says Briar. "We're understanding, and we don't fight over the bathroom in the morning." Torie adds, "I'm getting older, I'm realizing that my sisters are my best friends. We've traded in our Barbies for sneakers." Cousin Julian Boynton also gets in on the family snapshot.

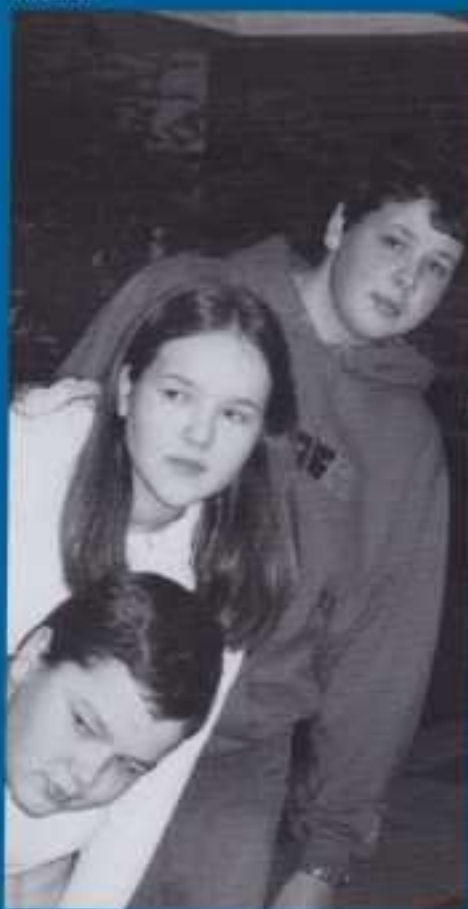

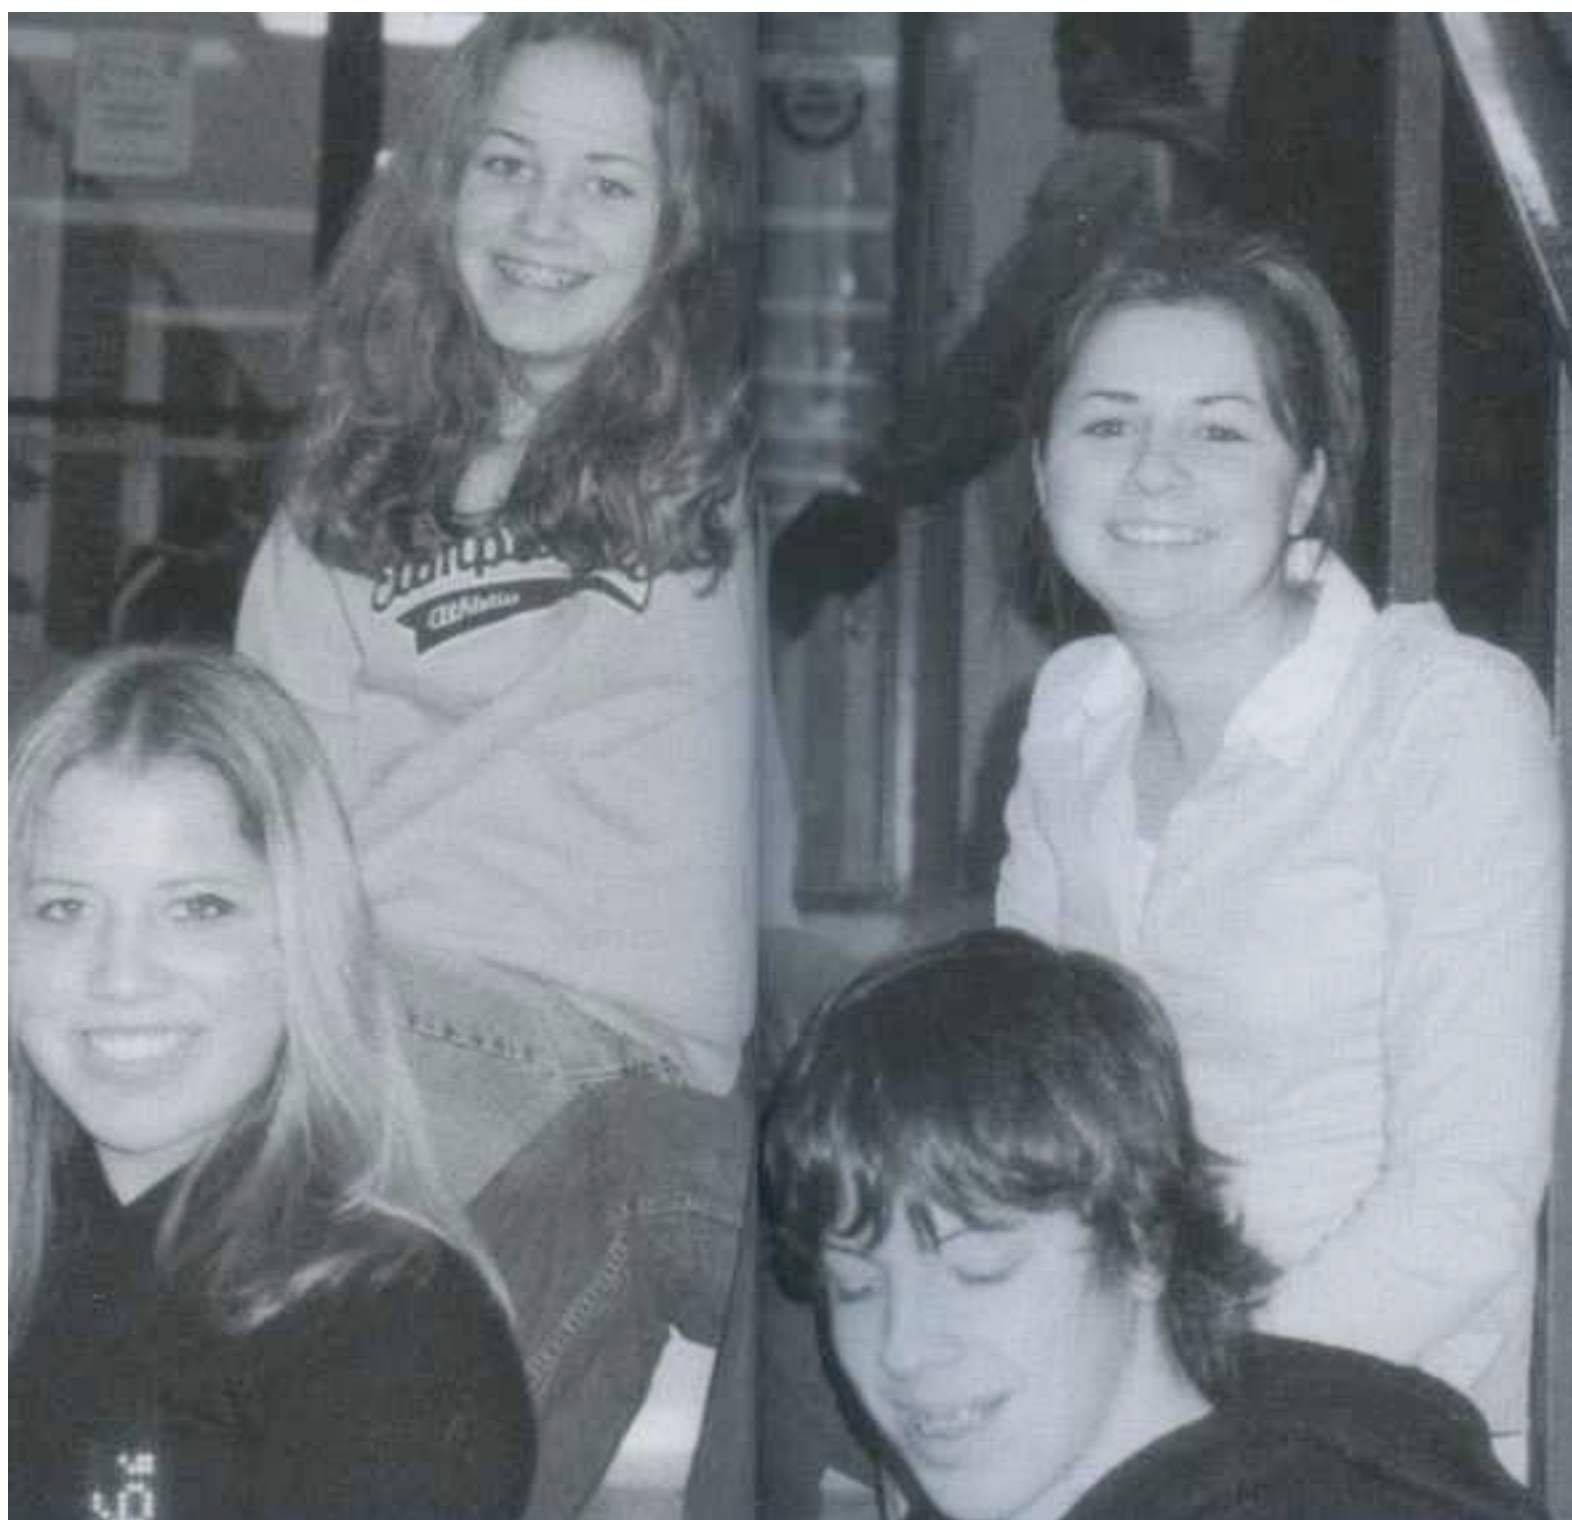

Gimme a Kiss Beautiful: Lauren (gr. 10) and Allie (gr. 9) Mumford are always on the go. Both are grade reps on Student Council and on the girls field hockey team. "I love the Mumfords," says long time friend Melissa Scott (gr. 10). "They love their Far Side, Seinfeld, and SNL. If they could, they'd live their whole life inside a Far Side day-by-day calendar."

Peek a Boi Marker: (gr. 11), Milo (gr. 10), and Simon (gr. 10) Jantunen take a peek around the corner to see if anyone's coming for them. Simon comments, "We have our ups and downs, just like any other siblings." How is this family unique? One reason is that they have 11 siblings. Looks like King City is going to be seeing Jantunens for many years to come.

Are You Lost?: If you see Charlene (gr. 10) or Jason (gr. 9) Mc Mann in the hallway, they are probably beating each other up! This fun-loving brother and sister duo are constantly playing jokes and laughing at each other on and off school hours. "I will never forget on Halloween, Charlene dressed in black and quietly followed us into the woods to scare Jason and take his candy," says Pat Bohan (gr. 9).

I'm Just Trying to Hug You: Lindsey Rife (gr. 11) gives her sister Christine (gr. 10) a playful headlock. Both sisters play in senior band and are part of the Neumarkter Stringers swim team. When asked if she likes having a younger sister, Lindsey shares, "I can control her, which is always good. Sometimes, she steals my room for me so I don't get in trouble. She's way too nice!"

The Brotherhood: Paul Ingham (GR) risks his GRC reputation by appearing in a picture with his younger brother John (gr. 10). "I can't say enough about my brother," jokes Paul. Both brothers snowboard and skateboard together. "Paul gives me a ride to school everyday, but before you go thinking that he's a nice guy, know that he makes me take the bus home!" says John.

Is That a Mirror? Chris Glassow (gr. 12) laughs at his younger brother Cam (gr. 9) who is up to his usual jokes. Chris and Cam can usually be seen together riding the ski hills and trying daredevil tricks. "Both brothers are hilarious! It's like having a copy of my best friend," says Alex Mc Lish (gr. 12). "It's fun having an older brother around in high school. He comes in handy, especially because he has his GR," jokes Cam. "Now I HAVE to be nice to him or he won't drive me around!"

Double Take: How many times have you mistaken Meghan Mintz (gr. 11) for her younger sister Lauren (gr. 10)? "It happens all the time, especially with teachers," says Lauren. "We're really competitive with each other, and our daily verbal fights can get pretty ugly. But we're sisters; it's our job to act like that!" Through all the fights there are advantages that the Mintz sisters value. "CLOUTIER Meghan has cars; I have tons. I mean, it's a win-win situation, don't you think?" laughs Lauren. The true meaning of sisterhood is finally revealed.

Overprotected: Jen (gr. 9) and Jeff (gr. 12) Tolt are a doppel brother and sister pair. These Nobleton siblings share interests in many activities, such as snowboarding. "My sister is cool, not like when we were younger," shares Jeff. "I'm always looking out for her, especially now that she's in high school." "Having an older brother hanging around is never a bad thing. I'm lucky to have Jeff as my brother," says Jen.

It Takes Two: Imagine having a set of twins in your family. What about two? Penny and Tomara and Bruce and Brad Forbes (gr. 11's) know this scenario all too well. Both sets are cousins, born within one week of each other! "It's weird because it's never happened in our family until now," says Brad (or maybe it was Bruce). "I don't know what I would do without Penny," says Tomara.

It's Getting Hot in Here so....

Take Off All Your Clothes

A new rule was instated at KCSS that came into effect in September of 2002 and it is getting everyone heated! When thinking about high school the words "dress code" should be far from thought, but this year it is all that anyone can think about. Now having to worry when you wake up in the morning about whether or not you are going to get scolded for your chosen attire has sent a shockwave throughout our halls. Dealing with this issue, the staff at KCSS have taken as serious an action as sending students to the office and even confiscating head gear until the end of the semester. Despite these consequences, not all students are taking the dress code as seriously as the teachers. Here are some students caught in the act of violating King City's new rule.

With the hat and the baring skin, it's obvious that these grade 10's didn't get the dress code memo!

Stephanie Beekhuysen and Galina Boutviovski run to hide from teachers on the prowl. Upon looking at the situation, poster by Rochelle Wilson says, "The way we dress is an expression of ourselves and by telling us what to wear you are taking away our freedom of expression!"

Boatysious???

"Scott Cornthers needs to get a belt!" laughs Melissa Scott as she passes him in the hall.

Mr. Genser is on the prowl watching for dress code violators! Can you find all the violators in the picture?

AND THE WINNER IS...

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS 2002

Student Council elections took place on Monday May 27th 2002. There were about eighteen students running for six different positions. "It was a good turnout, lots of enthusiasm with posters and campaigning," stated Mrs. Duncan, the supervisor of the Student Council at the time. The 2002 Student Council held spirit days, and pep rallies. They worked hard to encourage other students to come out to Student Council meetings and events, especially the elections. "I think the elections were well organized. The Student Council (2002) did a great job promoting the activities that were available. This year's Student Council worked really hard to promote school spirit, and include as many students in activities as they could. I think the 2003 Student Council will work just as hard," commented Mrs. Duncan. She was certainly right about that. The 2002/03 Student Council got off to a fabulous start with a fun-filled spirit week, wonderful Halloween fun, and of course, Keep the Beat, a fund-raiser for children in need in our communities.

The Candidates: Last year's candidates were Daniel Fanfauzzi, Mark Benavenuto, Scott Cruthers, Natalie Conte, Kahina Wright, Charlene McMan, Neelu Sharma, Sarah Emmett, Tiziana Piccini, Stephanie Fisher, Sandip Randhawa, Mary Bridger, Kristine Tran, Tiffany Moraes, and Collie Lane. Congratulations to all the winners. Great work was done by all, preparing speeches and working on posters. KCSS had a fun year full of spirited activities. Student Council can't wait until next year to start all over again!

S-P-I-R-I-T! Encouraging the crowd to show spirit towards each candidate's campaign, Sarah Emmett told KCSS students what kind of spirit to expect when she becomes president.

Winning it for Tran: Doing her impression of Varina Fous, Kristine shows her election poster, "Vote Tran." "I was very pleased with the enthusiasm shown by the candidates. Their posters were great!" comments Julie Boyton.

A Future Prime Minister Among Us? Sarah Emmett, this year's Student Council President and Michelle Sukhu last year's Student Council President share ideas after the elections. "She takes leadership in everything she does, and she deserves the position," comments Elaine Martins about Sarah.

All Night Long

ATLANTIS: UNDERNEATH THE STARS

King City Secondary School Prom was held in May of 2002 on the evening of the 24th. Even though the weather was not the greatest, the students' character and school spirit shined through.

Held at the Club Atlantis, which is located on the lakefront of Toronto, almost all of who attended enjoyed the scenic location.

As well, the food that was served was top quality. Chris Volpe said that "the food was excellent, the dancing was fun and the night was to be remembered."

Although not all liked the music that was played, the seniors were dancing all night. Tony Pontiero stated that "the food was great but I didn't like the music."

Since Prom is meant to symbolize the end of each student's highschool years, it is also a time in which the seniors come together and celebrate their accomplishments. Aysha Imtiaz said that "the sun did not have to be shining because we all shined together."

Prom made memories for all of those who attended and those memories will most likely stay with those students for the rest of their lives. No one will ever forget KCSS Prom 2002 at Atlantis on that special night in May.

A poll was taken which included over 100 students who attended Prom 2002. When asked if they enjoyed the evening:

- * 77% said that they thought it was great
- * 20% said that it was "so-so"
- * 3% did not enjoy Prom 2002

Circle of Friends: This group of friends will always be together, and have such strong friendships that it is going to be hard when we all go our separate ways," says Becky Forsythe. Clockwise from left: Paul Ingham, Ben Dippo, Becky Forsythe, Chip Klitzoglou, Josh Speers, Lisa Willard, Andrew Shyshko, and Andrew Sellars.

The Oval Office: 2001-2002's amazing student council president, Michelle Suhku, and this year's president, Sarah Emmett.

The following titles were given out to specific students, and were voted on by all who attended the Prom. The winners of each of the titles were:

Prom King: Warren Rigby

Prom Queen: Catie Lane

Best Dressed Male/Female: Kerina Gudding/Ashley Samboreski

Most School Spirit: Elena Martins

Most Likely to Become Famous: Cam Norman

Best Couple: Colin Hillock and Leila Schanck

Mr. Congeniality: Arsham Sheikhtasi

Mrs. Congeniality: Sarah Emmett

Class Clown: Tyler Morrison

Most Likely to Succeed: Michelle Suhku

"Everyone looked so pretty." This is how Megan Amedeo remembered her friends. The group of senior girls shone with beauty. From left to right: Ronyo Bakhit, Sarah Emmett, Natalia Rufundo, Michelle Woodhouse, Elise Cappuccitti, Nisha Minocha, Megan Amedeo, Catie Lane, Tiziana Piccinini, Rachael D'Addona.

The Royal Couple: 2002's Prom King and Prom Queen, Warren Rigby and Catie Lane. "I had absolutely no clue that I was going to be named Queen of our Prom," exclaimed Catie Lane.

Wedding Bells? The cutest couple award went to Colin Hillock and Leila Schanck. "If I had to choose the couple that I thought belongs together forever, it would have to be Colin and Leila," reported Erin Agar after the couple's win of the Best Couple contest.

Best friends for life: Jonathan Conrad and Colin Hillock spend some last high school moments together. "This year's Prom is going to be remembered forever by all of the seniors who attended," claimed Colin Hillock.

Science Olympics

Last year was our first year of the Grade Nine Science Olympics! All grade nine students participated in this event. This event was an opportunity for the students to have fun while learning topics and interacting with science. The Science Olympics consisted of many disciplines: Biology, Physics, Chemistry, Environmental Science, and Engineering. In each discipline there was an activity for students to participate in. In Biology there was a bell ringer test, where students answered many questions. In Physics, water balloon catapults were fired at many fellow students and teachers. In Chemistry, experiments were set up where students viewed the reactants and products from the experiment and answered questions. In Engineering, a group of students tried to build the tallest tower out of newspaper. In Environmental Science, the activity was a scavenger hunt where the students had to find many objects. Students who participated had a great time, and thought it was a fun way to spend a day!

Mad Scientists? Have some good ole fun at Science Olympics! Elizabeth Phan, Irene Kim, Matthew Bergeron, Ms. Howitt and Laura Smith explaining the reactions happening in their experiment. Grade nine Michael Mueller says, "It's interesting!"

Bombs Away: Mr. Miller heads towards the physics catapults delivering the last of the weapons of choice: WATER BALLOONS! Taylor Jones says, "Better watch out sir, you're the next target!" Mr. Miller then joins the onlookers, laughing at Taylor when he gets soaked.

Gutshot! Scott Carruthers, Brittney Muir, Taylor Jones, Sabrina Quattrocchi, and Kristine Tran act as targets and are surprised when a balloon comes flying their way, soaking them for the day. Two onlookers, Amanda Fisher and Stephanie Turtcher both said, "They better not get us, because it's freezing out here," as they take pictures for yearbook.

Lunchtime: Jennifer Atkinson, Vicki Burton, Ashley Hunt, Torie Boynton, Katarina Aaltonen, Jelena Frisic, Amy Cook, and Jessica Puccio are all enjoying their lunch time and a break from the kids! Sabrina Quattrocchi reminds them, "Ten minutes till break is over! AND I just caught a frog!"

Taking A Dip: At break time, Inuk Zandvokili gets wet and wild with no kids around to watch. Jelena Frisic, Amy Cook, Torie Boynton, and Katarina Aaltonen all laugh at Inuk and yell, "There's frogs all- over you!" as a frog jumps into the lake.

Reuse, Reuse, Recycle! Colin 'Pop-Can Man' Moore was part of the scavenger hunt for the environment-recycling activity. Stephanie Turtcher chuckles at her son's pose, "Way to strike a pose!" as he shows off his hand-crafted outfit.

Picnic Anyone? Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Thom are talking over lunch about the success of the day. Hilary Sutherland is enjoying the conversation while munching on BBQ and chips! Jennifer Atkinson says, "C'mon, we still have to plan for the second half of the day!"

Dig, Dig! Jason Pineo is working hard at his event, at the water festival. "Adding to the wonderful environment gives me pleasure, and I'm happy to help out!" Stephanie Robbins cheers him on as she says, "Keep on digging those trees Jay!"

Last May, students of all grades from KUSS attended the Water Festival at Bruce Mills Conservation Area. These students helped out for one day, out of the week of this festival. At this festival there were approximately 30 water related events. Several hundreds of elementary kids attended this festival, enjoying their stay as well as learning about water qualities worldwide. The student volunteers received community service hours, and a free t-shirt and a lunch. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Thom were both very pleased with the outcome of this event! It was a great experience and everyone had a wonderful time, even with all the water fights!!

Water Festival

King Karnival

The big bash to finish the year!

On Tuesday June 4, 2002, King City had the first carnival in years. It was a successful event arranged by student council. Many fun activities were played, such as human-foosball, sumo wrestling, and even dunk-the-teachers. Teachers and students had time to relax and have fun after all their hard work during the year. Fortunately many fun-loving memories were captured on film.

The Ultimate Gladiator: Looks like it's blue vs. yellow. Luckily protection gear is worn. Angelika Schuko said, "The helmets do nothing! It hurts your ear, and you still get hit in the face!" At least nobody got hurt too badly. Just don't take your anger out on that bad test mark.

Kurplunk: "There goes Mr. Mallory," said Rahul Panchal laughing. This was the only chance for students to get even with their teachers. No wonder this was one of the most popular games!

I think I'm turning Japanese: After struggling and jumping into the big puffy sumo-suit Jesse Goggins fights Ricky Bogatek in the ring, getting beat down by his opponent. Elena Martins on the side shouted, "He doesn't look so tough, bring it on!" The crowd points and laughs. "Uh oh," Angelika Schuko said, "another game with helmets."

Just eat it! Catie Lane, Kaely Bell, and Ashlee Evans competed for the fastest jello eater in the girls' round. Catie Lane said, "It was worth the five McGugan bucks!" After finishing her last slurp of jello, Kaely Bell said, "It was the best jello I ever ate!" Maybe next year it will be green jello instead of red.

Why can't we just get along? Tony Pontiero packs a punch to his opponent, Kyle Williams. "The big blows made me very tired, it was hard for me to swing my arms," said Tony. Rory Gullivan-Hopkins and Sivakaran Gunaratnam wait for their turns, to duke it out in the next match.

When it comes to candy, it is a popular treat of the school year. Kids don't mind waiting in line for a treat. "I've been waiting for a minute," said Jana Bell. "I've been waiting for a minute," said Michelle. "I've been waiting for a minute," said Michelle. "I've been waiting for a minute," said Michelle.

We will rock you: Sean Hingston, guitarist of Outshine, plays solo from "Interstate Love Song." Taylor Jones said, "Yeah, I can see them with their own video on Much Music one day." Sean replied, "Thanks, I like to play." Who knows what will be in a couple of years. Maybe their next live performance will be in Hollywood.

Heads Down, Eat Up! Here are the guys slurping up the jello in this round. Notice how the jello is almost gone! Brian Baker, Colin Moore, Daniel Barra-Berger, Lee Skene, and Jacob Murray slogged it down. After, Colin Moore chuckled and said, "I almost threw-up while still finishing my jello."

SPRING ARTS

SPRINGTIME HAS ALWAYS BEEN A TIME OF INSPIRATION FOR ARTISTS. FOR KCSS STUDENTS THIS IS NO EXCEPTION.

In May 2002, the staff and students at King City Secondary School brought to life on stage, Oscar Wilde's play The Importance of Being Earnest. As the playbill explained, this play is a social commentary of "the follies of young love and an upper class with too much time on its hands...." In a brief explanation of the comedy's plot, Elana Martins, the actress playing Cecily Cardew, said, "Basically, two girls fall in love with a man named Earnest who doesn't exist." Directed by Ms. Cioffi and Ms. Wells the school gave two successful performances of this production.

The Music and Art Department collaborated to produce Into the Joy of Spring, a concert and art display on May 16th, 2002. "The concert was spectacular!" exclaimed the music department head, Mrs. Harvey. "It was well received, and the parents loved it!" This production was a sum of all their efforts over the year. The concert highlighted the music department's progress and expansion of the smaller ensembles, such as the jazz band, as well as the already established groups, like the choir. The art display featured a variety of artists and art forms from all of the grades, displaying not only some exceptional examples of each grade's major project for the semester, but also some Group of Seven inspired paintings and Egyptian styled drawings.

Judgement Day: "This will do for now," pronounces Lady Bracknell, Sarah Sanjakdar, as she passes judgement on whether Cecily Cardew, Elana Martins, is marriage material for her nephew Algernon played by Cam Davis.

King City Secondary School

"a trivial comedy for serious people"

KCSS Presents... The playbill for The Importance of Being Earnest offers a behind the scenes look and production's cast. As well it recognizes the art and technical production crew under the guidance of producer Mr. Sebastian.

Whatever you do, don't laugh! "This was one of the hardest scenes to do," confesses Elana Martins, the actress playing Cecily Cardew. "We were all supposed to be so serious, but we were all on the verge of laughter." Joining her on stage are Nafolie Munro playing Gwendolen Fairfax, and Cameron Ross as the butler Merriman.

"What's the order of music?" Nora Kirov and Win Win Wong warm up for the big music night on May 15, 2002.

"Bub, Buda, Be, Dub, Bub." Andrew Woo mentally rehearses as he awaits his big performance for the Into the Joy of Spring concert. This was his first year with the senior band. He has also been a participant of the senior Jazz band as the drummer.

Lights, Camera, Makeup? As Elise Cappocelli prepares Cam Davis for his performance as Algernon Moncrieff, smiling to herself as she comments, "It's not every day you get to put make-up on a guy."

30 HOURS FOR THE CHILDREN

NINETY-SIX SENIOR STUDENTS GAVE UP THEIR MEALS.

From Tuesday May 14th until Wednesday May 15th 2002, ninety-six senior students fasted for thirty hours. They raised both money and awareness for famine relief in developing countries. Fasting also gave these students a greater understanding of the plight people in developing nations face everyday. Sarah Emmett and Kristine Tran, along with Mr. Havercroft, Ms. Turner and Ms. Pace, were the organizers of the event. Additional help was provided by the nighttime caretakers Nunzio Iacobellis and Mark Ywetman who also stayed to help the students achieve their goal. And achieve their goal they did! Almost three thousand dollars was raised by the group. "Students responded with enthusiasm, and displayed strong character traits. Having ninety-six students volunteer to fast for 30 hours and to sleep overnight in the school gymnasium is encouraging and exemplifies the spirit found at KCSS," commented Mr. Havercroft.

Don't Let the Bed Bugs Bite! Devin Harvey and Megan Amedeo curl up to watch the Leafs playoff game in front of the library. It looks like they won't get too much sleep with all the cheering going on! Go Leafs Go!

Taking Their Minds off of Food: Lenny Goldman is just one of the students finding ways to stop thinking about that dinner they missed. Play Station and Hide-and-Go-Seek were just two of the activities students enjoyed throughout the night. As for Lenny, he'd better get his eye back on the game!

Bed Time! Marie Cutler, Megan Amedeo, Elise Cappuccitti, and Tanya Moore are in the Gym gathering around their sleeping bags to tell stories and play cards. Megan may not last long though. Soon after this picture, she yawned and said, "I'm tired and I want to go to bed."

The Crowd Goes Wild! Torie Boyton and fellow fans gather around the television in front of the gym to watch the good ol' hockey game. Their efforts worked well; the Leafs beat the Senators. Unfortunately, in a subsequent round, the Leafs were knocked out. Still no Stanley Cup for Toronto fans.

Bindertwines: Brad Forbes, Meghan Mintz, and Bruce Forbes stop shopping to take a quick picture for the yearbook. They are enjoying their time together on this hot September day in Kleinburg.

Skipping? Marco Musso, Alex Swift, and Don Perry are caught red handed skipping their third period class. Can you blame them? Look how innocent they look!

Biology Rocks! Sarah Pines and Jackie Patton are carefully to the teacher as she talks about atoms. Jackie looks like she wants to have a clone of herself as she sits there with a devious smile.

...2004!

Yummy! Urva Malik looks at the food brought in by the students of Ms. Mottola's history class, deciding what she would like to try.

Awkward: Amanda Eckford does not look like she wants her picture taken.

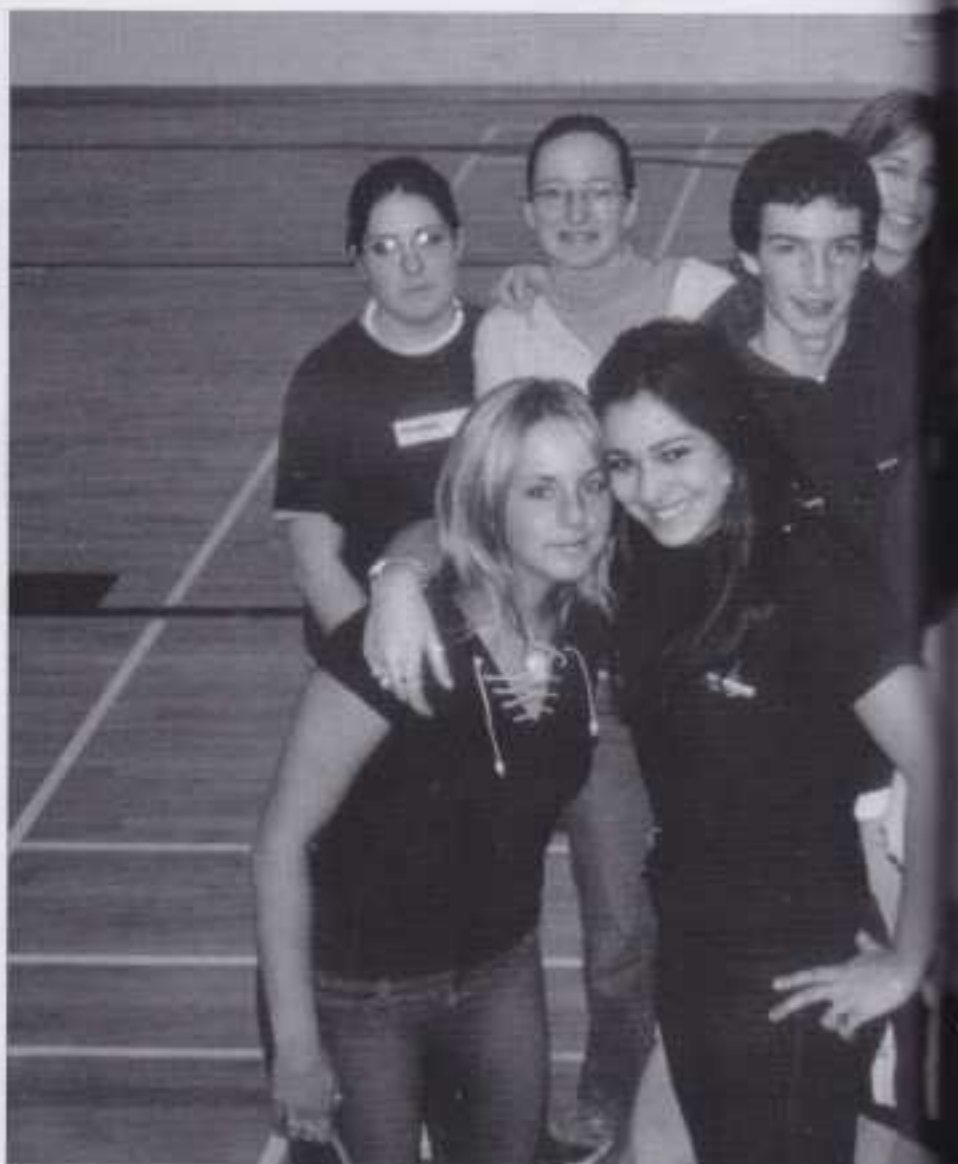

Time for school: Matt Kohne has his picture snapped as he wakes up just in time for school.

History flocks: Ms. Mottola's Grade 11 World History class is having a blast and is not afraid to show off the wonderful time they are having.

Class of...

Perfect Pose: Lauren Mintz reluctantly poses for the camera, but wouldn't you all agree how beautiful she looks? Even on a dress-down day, many of K.C.S.S.'s students know how to look good.

Deep in thought: Alannah Kowalewski sits in class deep in thought, unknown to the fact that a picture was being taken of her. It's amazing what a camera with zoom can do.

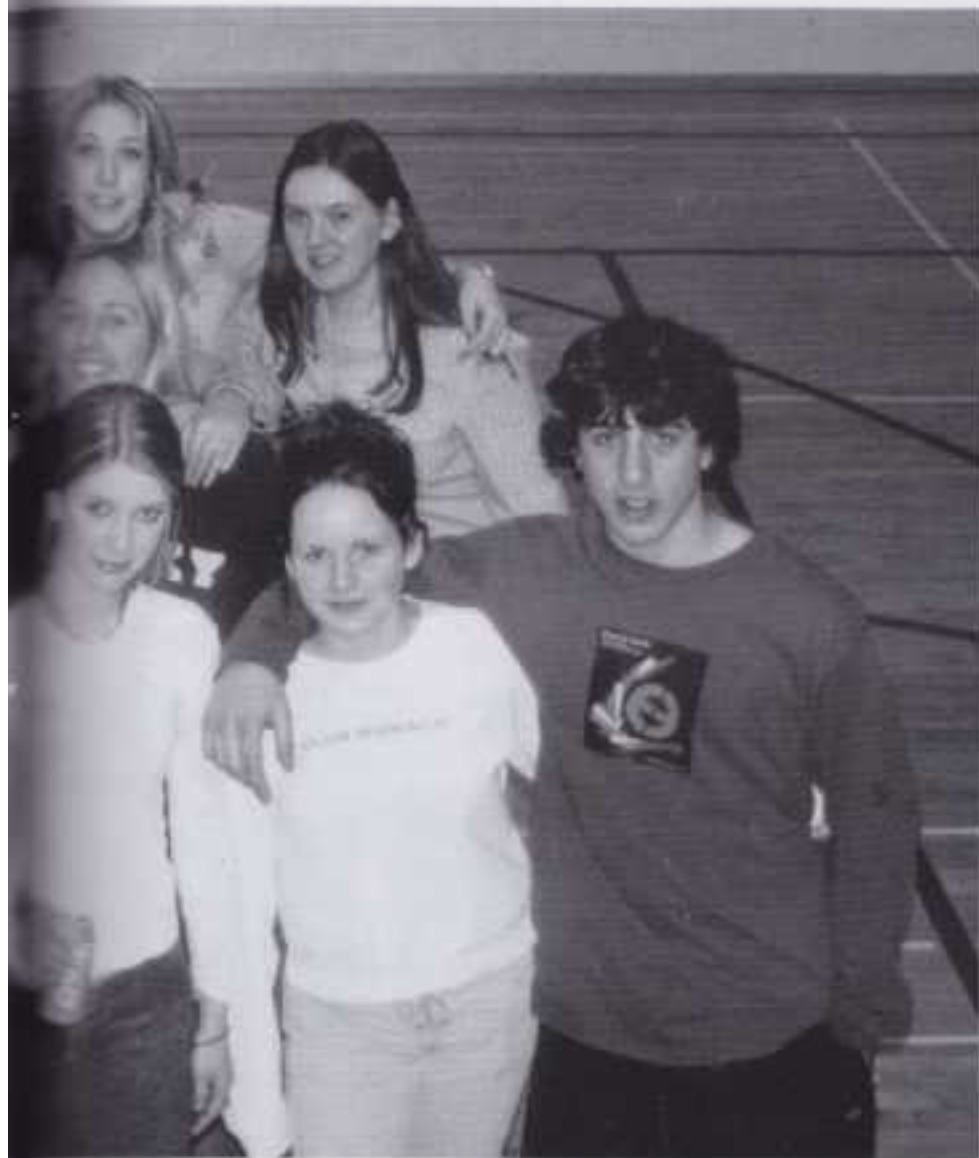

Group work: History class is much more fun when you have class with friends. Vanessa Muzzo, Nancy McClure, and Kayla Whittaker sit hard at work in Ms. Pace's history class.

Study Buddy: Sara Archibald and Adam Kane work hard on an experiment in science. Science can be challenging at times, but getting the work done with someone else makes the time pass quicker.

...2005!

Art Attack: Art class is always a favourite among students. Tiffany Denere stands talking to her friends, while a sneak snap was taken. The sneaky yearbook staff knows the tricks to getting pictures.

Bus Ride: Dave Celebre and Betty Ostrowski enjoy their ride home. Every morning students board the bus for the trek to school, but a friendly face is always a joy to see on your way to school.

Teacher Instruction: Chris Straw gets a lesson from Ms. Peacock on how to do the experiment. Many of us need help from our excellent teachers figuring out complicated science experiments.

Studying Hard: Sam Novak, Dan Sprag, and Sarah Blagdon are hard at work in Ms. Duval's French class. Learning another language can be hard at times, but hard work and dedication make it possible to learn it.

Class of...

Derek Long said "When I finish high school I am hoping to go to college or university," when asked what his plans are for when he finishes high school in 2006.

Jeffrey Tieziera said "I am planning on opening my own Bicycle shop because I love everything that has to do with bikes."

Krista Solder stops what she is doing in class to say "I am planning on going to go to University then I would like to open my own Business."

Jessica Hambahon said "I am going to be famous after I finish high school," when asked what her plans for after high school are.

...2006!

When asked what are your plans for after Highschool Kane Vassallo said "I am planning on go to college or university when I finish Highschool"

Miss Mumford: "After high school I am going to go to College then University to become a Doctor." was her response when asked what she is doing after high school. She is one person that has her mind set out.

Anne Courtney wasn't too thrilled when asked if we could get a quote from her about what she wants to do after she finishes high school, but she was a good sport about it all. Anne said, "I am wanting to go to College or University when I finish high school here at King City."

Notalie D. answered with this positive attitude. "I am hoping to become a Photographer, a Vet or a Professional Horse Back Rider when I am finished my high school career." This girl has all her bases covered.

Graduates of 2002-2003

So take the photographs and still frames in your mind,
Hang it on a shelf of good health and good time...
It's something unpredictable,
But in the end is right,
I hope you had the time of your life.

Blast from the Past A Tribute To Our Childhood

Childhood memories can often be surprisingly vivid, calling to mind a certain toy or a certain trend that gripped an entire age group and could never really be duplicated. There are a plethora of toys, movies, TV shows, and trends that affected the children of the 1980's. The following is a list of the most popular.

Cabbage Patch Dolls, Snap Bracelets, New Kids on the Block, My Little Pony, Barbie, Leggings with foot straps, Hot Wheels, Mr. Dressup, Popples, The Raccoons, Rainbow Brite, Scrunchies, EZ Bake Oven, Sticker Collections, The Smeggies, Sharon Lois and Bram, L.A. Gears, Nite Brite, Care Bears, Today's Special, Raffi, Lego, Ninja Turtles, Pogs, Power Rangers, Devil Sticks, Smurfs, Four Square, Inspector Gadget, Cupcake Dolls.

A Little Help From My Friends

*What would you do if I sang out of tune,
Would you stand up and walk out on me.
Lend me your ears and I'll sing you a song,
And I'll try not to sing out of key...
I get by with a little help from my friends.
-The Beatles-*

Get to class! The bell has already rung, but these three girls still insist on taking a picture before heading to class. It's no wonder they're always late!

More lessons at King? Nope, just a grade 12 science-related activity. Shucks, I knew it was too good to be true!

Testing, testing, 1,2,3: This group of senior boys don't need to do their experiment over and over to get it right. After the first try, they get the ball going.

Two of everything: Not only do these girls share University and College deadlines, but they also share the spotlight on a karaoke Friday at King.

Cruisin' Together

People often forget how important Grade 11 truly is during a highschool career. After all, Grade 11 is the year that most people celebrate their sixteenth birthday and experience the new freedom of driving. No more lunch hours spent at the plaza! Now students can venture to Oak Ridges to enjoy a wider variety of fast food. But driving is just a minor event that makes Grade 11 memorable.

Grade 11 is known as the forgotten year because it is the year of transition. Students are now comfortable with their peers, adjusted to organizing their time efficiently and becoming more involved in clubs and other student activities. Students are making the transition from becoming comfortable in their new school to preparing to leave their temporary den.

This is the year that students make plans for their future beyond the halls of King City Secondary School. Approaching their last year of highschool, students are finalizing their plans while having fun!

Hawaii Getaway: Stephanie Plo, Julio Martino, Jackie Patton, Peter Morrissey and Justin Ball give warm smiles at this year's Hawaiian themed semi-formal.

Three Musketeers: These three girls can always be found together, no matter what the occasion or situation.

(Top) Too cool for school: This group of easygoing grade eleven students stops for a picture in the gym during lunch.

(Bottom) Do not disturb: Most would think "forgetting all the parts, how do you fix these things?" but for these two boys, fixing an engine is as easy as pie.

(Left) School's out: The last bell has rung for the day, but these three still have time to joke around before their bus leaves.

Doin' Just Fine...

Grade 10's... no longer minor niners! Grade 10 brings a new sense of independence and confidence. No longer being pushed around, the Grade 10's are here to teach the new-comers the ropes and how to survive their first year of high school. Grade 10's learn to be confident and walk around school with their heads high. They are no longer freshmen but sophomores! They can walk around freely without watching their backs all day for any mischief going on. The seniors who teased them last year are long gone, a distant memory!

And who can forget the Grade 10 Literacy test? The big test that is a must for graduation. This mandatory testing was introduced in January 2001. The test is required to assess student knowledge in reading and writing. To prepare students for this test, there was help available from the literacy committee run by Ms. Hofland. Students had the opportunity to practice literacy skills before the test.

Victory sure is sweet. King City lion Frank Rilecco is roaring to get on the rink to play some KCS hockey.

Two heads are better than one: These two girls literally put their heads together to try and come up with an idea for a class assignment.

The Innocent

Grade nine is by far the most challenging and fun year throughout all of high school. Grade nines get to enjoy freedom, new friends and a whole new set of classes; but along with all that change comes new responsibilities.

Along with the adaption to high school life, there is the nervous feeling of going to a big school with older people. At King City the grade nines had nothing to sweat about since there was always the help from TAP mentors and many friendly faces that were seen around the school.

At King City the grade nines get special treatment to welcome them into their new home. Our school offered fun and memorable activities for grade nine students such as, King Camp, library orientation, a welcoming grade nine assembly, and extended homeroom with TAP Mentors. There were tons of fun events and activities to make the first year of high school easier and less stressful than many think.

Looking a little puzzled? It's the grade nine assembly, these students work together to solve the Student Council riddle.

(Left) Babies of the school: On Halloween, these girls dressed up like babies. Don't worry girls, grade 10 is just around the corner!

(Right) Flying High: It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's just a grade 9 student flying off the diving board at RDC King Camp!

Who turned off the lights? Jason McMoan and his TNP group enjoy the challenge of finding their way through the emerging activity at King Camp. Cheering loudly and guiding their fellow group member, helps her get through the challenge.

That looks a little painful! Poor injured Ms. Francis waits while one of her students paints fake blood on her arm. The oil on her coat is not an accident; the costume she is wearing is part of the homeroom teacher decorating contest on Halloween.

No more pencils! No more books! No more teacher's dirty looks! Out for summer! Out 'til fall! We might not come back at all! School's out forever! School's out for summer! School's out with fever! School's out completely!

Memories of 02-03

It was a lot of fun
a new experience.

It was the first time I ever did it.

"Good times, good friends."

Only in history can one eat
as the ancient Greeks did.

ESL students had the exciting opportunity to skate on Canadian ice.

To the new school spirit, these girls brought their homecoming cheer.

"We first were worried,
but now I love it!"

It was good, it was great, it was the best thing.

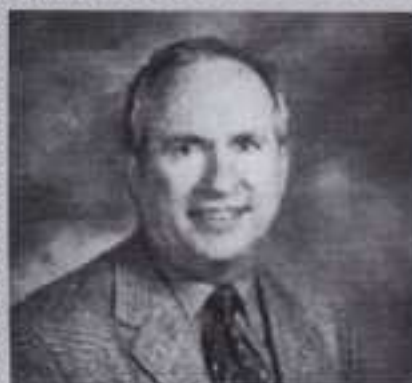

My Music At Work

Good Old School Days

Up in the Morning and off to School

A little bit about King City's principal, Mr. McGugan:

What is the most creative or hilarious student excuse you've ever heard?

"I had to skip class, Mr. McGugan! The caf food made me delirious!"

If you could be any teacher of the opposite sex, who would it be?

"Our newest teacher, Ms White, because she has a whole teaching career yet to experience."

What is your favourite movie quote?

"It's our choices, Harry, that show us what we truly are, far more than our abilities."

- Professor Dumbledore (Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets)

What is your all-time favourite song?

"Skinnamarink by Sharon, Lois and Bram."

Math, Science, Family Studies...King City offers it all! With 17 departments and a variety of courses to choose from, school can be fun! You may think that all schools offer the same courses, but this is not always the case! King City offers some programs that are unique to our school. There is a full technology department which offers courses such as Design Technology and Transportation.

Let's not forget the friendly staff that make every day at K.C.S.S. memorable. The dedicated staff offer help to students in all courses. There's a math lab which runs Wednesdays at lunch, countless music rehearsals, and many other academic services that run day in and day out.

School doesn't always have to be about sitting in classrooms all day; it's about learning through field trips, too! This year, Grade 11 and 12 history and Italian classes had the opportunity to spend a week in Italy. They not only did they learn, but they had fun, too! The trip was organized by Mrs. Mottola and Mr. Sebastiano.

The Grade 9 geography classes had the chance to go downtown to explore Toronto this year. The trip was called the American Race. It gave the students the opportunity to learn more about the great city of Toronto.

Let's not forget the Grade 12 Journalism class who spent hours in front of the computer to produce this yearbook. It's quite a masterpiece! Well done Journalism class!

This is only a fraction of what is offered at K.C.S.S. There are plenty of opportunities for an enlightening classroom experience.

Soy Cheese! Melissa Scott and Lauren Mumford are grasping the concepts of photography in the Journalism world. These two girls helped create this year's awesome King City fiction.

Rock of AGES

Approximately 30 students, along with Ms. Mottolo, Mr. Sebastiano, and Mrs. Micone stopped for a photo in the lobby of "Croce di Malta" the hotel they stayed at while in Florence, Italy. The trip was sponsored by the History and Moderns departments.

A Helping Hand: Aaron Martin helps out fellow Grade 12 student Peter Bergeron understand Mr. Sinyard's World History lesson. "Aaron's always willing to help me out," says Peter.

Mr. Bentley, head of the History department, gives us his philosophy on life:

What is the most creative or hilarious student excuse you've ever heard?

"I had to go hunting with my Dad in Michigan."

What is your all-time favourite song?

"This Guy's in Love by Burt Bacharach."

Peaceful World

What a Wonderful World: Mrs. Whitfield's Grade 9 Geography class learns the basics of Canadian geography. Student Ryan DeClerc listens intently to the instructions as he looks in his textbook for an example.

Out in the Cold: Geography teachers Ms. Linkewich and Mrs. Whitfield take a break from the excitement of the Geomatics field trip at the Hing Trails not far from our school.

Meet Ms. Linkewich, head of King City's Geography department:

If you could be any teacher of the opposite sex, who would it be?

"Mr. Fitzgerald because I wish I could play hockey like him."

What is your all-time favourite song?

"C-A-N-A-D-A by Stompin' Tom Connors."

Ms. Wells teaches French, Media and Drama at King City.

What is the most creative or hilarious student excuse you've ever heard?

"You were dressed as a witch, so I forgot."

If you could be any teacher of the opposite sex, who would it be?

"Mr. Sebastiano - I want to be able to speak Italian!"

King City's English Department Head, Mr. Robson, enlightens us with some of his teaching experiences:

If you could be any teacher of the opposite sex, who would it be?

"Ms. Hofland, because she's surrounded by books all day."

What is the most creative or hilarious student excuse you've ever heard?

"In an effort to save paper, my sister printed her assignment on the back of mine and handed it in!"

THE SHOW MUST GO ON

Lights, Camera, Action! Grade 10 Drama student Tyler Ellison and his fellow group members practice their script over and over again, trying to get their skit perfect for the upcoming presentations.

Barrel of Laughs: Ms. Gioffe's Grade 10 Drama students stop in front of The Second City, where they attended an improv workshop.

EVERYBODY'S GOT A STORY

Deep in thought: Grade 12 Sara Perzin sits concentrating in the hall during her second period spare. She is working hard on getting her English homework finished quickly before her next class.

Lost in her book: Shannon Smith takes advantage of the free reading time to read ahead. "Shannon is always very focused in her reading," comments fellow English student Randy Schwartz.

DRAW THE LINE

Painting the perfect picture: Ms. Chan's Grade 11 art student Mary Bridger is in deep thought as she concentrates on skin tones. "I'm trying to decide how to paint the hands; they're the hardest part!"

Three is Company: Ms. Chan's Grade 12 Visual Art class is always working on a new project. Amanda Zelina, Delores Sanguedolce, and Mike Ferrari are having an organic lesson today.

Art department head Ms. Chan paints a picture of King City:

If you could be any teacher of the opposite sex, who would it be?

"Mr. Thompson - he's mild mannered and calm on the outside, and caring and devoted to helping kids on the inside."

What is your all-time favourite song?

"Anything written by Coldplay."

PLAY THAT FUNKY MUSIC

Name That Tune: Carolyn Macfildie gets her reed out while getting ready to play her saxophone in Ms. Harvey's Grade 9 music class.

Fill That Jazz: Hillary Eigelshoven and Valerie Petroff are busy playing a piece on the trumpet conducted by Ms. Harvey. Keep up the great work, and maybe we'll see you in a symphony or orchestra in the future!

Get to know Ms. Harvey, our lone music teacher:

What is the most creative or hilarious student excuse you've ever heard?

"My hamster ate my music book!" (The student returned the chewed book the following day!)

If you could be any teacher of the opposite sex, who would it be?

"Mr. Bocknek - I wouldn't have to buy new shoes!"

Mr. Schoenhardt, our Business department head, gives us some insight into the world of teaching and beyond:

What is the most creative or hilarious student excuse you've ever heard?

"I had to castrate pigs!!!"

What is your all-time favourite song?

ABC 123 by Jackson 5

TAKIN' CARE OF BUSINESS

from Microsoft Publisher to Power Point to Excel, HCSS Business Students learn up-to-date business software.

Look-ey Here! This Grade 9 class is learning how to use all the basic computer programs, like Microsoft Word, Excel, and Publisher. Christopher Russo points to the screen to show us what he has accomplished.

King City's technology department head Mr. Parkin lets us in on some personal favourites

What is your favourite movie quote?

"I think I should have cut the redwire" - Mel Gibson in Lethal Weapon

What is your all-time favourite song?

"Imagine by John Lennon"

ONE HEADLIGHT

Anyone need an oil change? These grade eleven automotive students, Andrew Rolfe and Kyle Roy, are getting all greased up while investigating the inside of this car provided by the automotive department.

Tool Time! Graydon Stranks and Diego Prashed are working hard on their construction projects in Mr. Bateman's Construction Technology class. Be careful with that drill, Graydon!

EYE OF THE TIGER

SENIOR FOOTBALL

WE WILL ROCK YOU

COACH'S CORNER WITH MR. MATWULEC

"The team had lots of spirit and that really showed during the games. I was extremely pleased with their effort."

This year, no other team managed to raise school spirit more than the senior football team. They made it to the playoffs, but lost in the quarter finals. With only 6 veteran players on the team, the seniors had a fantastic season. Hard work and dedication to the sport really paid off, and next year they will be ready to bring home a championship. Good bye to our graduating Lions. To the rest of the team, we'll get 'em next year!

He's Going All the Way. Shane Jones moves a fantastic touchdown as his Richmond Hill player gets his dirt. Shane looks towards his veteran brother, Taylor Jones for advice and tips on how to play King football. "It's cool to have Taylor on the team to show me the ropes." The Jones brother duo is an asset to the team.

Hey! Hey Yeah! Coach Mollary gives Chris Rones, Nick Rahovsky, Daniel Howard, and Tash Belle a quick pep talk and strategizes a new play with them before he sends them back onto the field. "The coaches are an inspiration to anyone who steps onto the field," says veteran Andrew Sellar.

All for one and one for all. Nick Rahovsky defends fellow teammate Daniel Howard from a Newmarket player while Neoh Hobson runs so he doesn't miss out on all the fun. "On the field, I just think seek and destroy," laughs Neoh. "He makes football worth watching," says spectator Calvin Garber.

Mike Biondi, Jamie Biondi, Tash Belle, Matt Bink, Ricky Bogotek, BJ Brown, Devin Brown, Stefano Cappuccitti, Scott Carruthers, Nathan Dagg, Ron Davis, Ryan Dietl, Eric Donohue, Matt Elliott, Dan Fontauzzi, Lanny Goldman, Ryan Gomez, Mike Grom, Chris Hayes, Glen Hughes, Neoh Hobson, Cleon Holmes, Dan Howard, Shane Jones, Taylor Jones, Joel Kershoff, Chris Lucas, Ricky Mana, David McLennan, Andrew McNulty, John Mouti, Mike Mitchell, Alex Murray, Nick Rahovsky, Cam Ross, Vito Sacchetti, Andrew Sellar, Zays Shah, Rob Wale.

44...10...MUT! These victorious lions get ready to rock Richmond Hill on this offensive play.

Y'ALL READY FOR THIS?

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Down He Goes Dedicated captain Matt Rzesut takes one for the team as he resists being pulled down by a Villa Nova player. The team tied this game, one of the early ones of the season. "After that game I felt we became closer as a team," says Matt Rzesut.

The junior football team had an awesome season. Our mighty cubs ended the season with a 1 and 5 score and placed 5th amongst Villa Regim schools. While they do not get as much recognition as the seniors, they still had the same if not more, dedication and spirit on and off the field. The love for the sport really drive them to play hard. Congratulations on a great season guys! See you on the field next year.

Push It Villa Nova's attempt to score a touchdown is stopped by one of our mighty cubs. Adam Smithson stands by his teammate and attempts to jump in and help save Villa Nova's down. "This year I had fun playing football because it allowed me to take my stress and anger and put it towards winning the game," says Adam.

Shut 'em Down Eager fans Joey Fortin, Jesse Cooney, and Ries Paschowski rush to get to where all the action is. "After playing such a good season of junior football, I'm looking forward to playing with the seniors next year," says Ries Paschowski.

Huddle Close Now... The team takes time for a thirty second pep talk to raise spirits. The Lions strategize so they can beat Brother Hyde, the team that eliminated the senior team from the playoffs. Spectator Martha Dippe comments, "It was an intense game, but the team was awesome."

Members of the Junior Football Team are (in no particular order)

CORCHES: Amerigo D'Agella, Kevin Davidson, Mr. Johnston, Mr. Miller

CORCH'S CORNER WITH MR. MILLER

"In the beginning, we were a bunch of individuals playing football. However, by the end of the season, after many injuries and tough times, teamwork was one of our biggest assets and it showed through their hard work and dedication."

Top Row: Lisette Jemmott, Corli Bredt, Brittany Gaudi, Meghan Mintz.

Absent: Samantha Emilio.

FOOTBALL
1994

I'll get it! Samantha Emilio runs right up there to get the rebound. No way the opposing team is getting that ball first. Victory is ours!

Where is everyone? Kristin Dove looks around for one of her team members to pass to as she catches the ball and heads straight for the net.

I'm flying, I'm flying! Kathryn Kropman struts her butterfly moves, as she makes an awesome shot. She has lots of dedication and never misses a practice. Way to go Kathryn!

Shhh! Nobody disturbs Lisette Jemmott as she tunes everyone out to concentrate on this shot. No matter what, she remains determined to play.

Front Row: Kathryn Kropman, Catie Lane, Leigh Jolly.

Missing in action: Lindsay Brust, Lisette Jemmott.

Coach's Corner

"The girls gave a good effort and for the most part they were pretty dedicated. I know at times, it's hard to take orders from me! Especially since I was younger than some of them, but they listened when they had to... too bad we just missed the playoffs." Archie Sidhu

Jr. and Sr. Boys Basketball

Rosert: Joe Furfari, Simon McKendry.

Oh no you don't! This opposing teammate is not getting past Matthew Gladman this time. Matthew plays a great defense. Nobody gets by him.

What a steal! Marco Sacilotto is doing his thing, as he dribbles up the court to victory. Nothing is going to get in his way. King City takes control all of the way.

You can do it! Cleon Holmes plays a tough game. By the sweat dripping off his face and his infinite effort, he makes King City proud. The expression on his face shows pure determination as he tries to steal that ball!

The crowd goes wild! Arshie Sidhu winds up for the DUNK. Even the opposing teammate watches in awe, as he is unstoppable!

Back Row: Tosin Bello, Randy Schwartz, Randy Schiller, Arshie Sidhu.

Coach's Corner

"We're an inexperienced Sr. team, with only two players returning this year. But we are making progress. We have a winning record up to date. Basically this year's a learning experience."

Mr. Gould

Girls & Boys Varsity Golf

Fore! Watch out KCSS, here comes the golf team!

Does she have her eye on the ball or on the future? Will KCSS see Bev Peel, who placed second in all of York Region for girls Varsity, some day rubbing shoulders with Tiger Woods? Or perhaps this grade nine will be showing the world how it's done in the LPGA.

This is the big leagues, not mini putt. Adam Hamilton shows us how it's done on the putting green. This grade 12 knows how to do it right; perhaps he'll be the next Arnold Palmer. Wishful thinking won't get him there so he needs practice, practice, practice.

Boys Varsity Team

Back Row: Dan Howard, Mr. Fitzgerald, Scott Hamilton

Middle Row: Jon Rooden, Derek Marsham, Alex Stephenson, Broedon Hayes, Mike Shuryn, Adam Hamilton, Mike Thompson, Mr. Kroemer

This is serious golf, just look at these boys' faces; they mean business!

Girls Varsity Team

Shea Montgomery, Megan Amedeo, Bev Peel, Martha Dippo, Keely Bell

With their clubs in tow, these girls are ready to go! The Girls Varsity Team is having a fun season full of practice and apprehension.

Co-Ed Cross Country

Through rain, sleet, snow- yes snow!- the Co-ed Cross Country team ran their little hearts out! These athletes toughed it out in all the fall weather. Just because it's cold, doesn't mean they still can't have fun!

The Cross Country Team

Back Row: David Molins, Ms. Mooers, Mr. Harris, Jennifer Guidolin, Samantha Johnston, Elise Steenhoek, Adam Ivany

Absent: Anna Stumen

I think I can, I think I can, I think I can... We know you can David! Grade 10 David Molins uses all his strength to make it through the all-terrain course. He's even ahead of the pack. This lion knows where the proudest lion prouls.

Going for the post! Matthew Gray picks up speed as he attempts to pass the other contestants. With his sights set high, Matthew continues to climb to the finish line wearing his green and gold. Despite the cool weather conditions, Matthew was able to complete the course with a hop, skip and roar.

Varsity Girls Field Hockey

These girls once again proved that King's got spirit! Not only did they achieve their goal, but they were a beat away from making the playoffs. Way to go Lions!

Girls Varsity Field Hockey

Middle Row: Laura Grande, Kristen Martnett, Teila Whittaker, Laura Matson, Alison Mumford, Alianna Stentford, Lauren Mumford.

Absent: Manager Nancy Ciccone

What a hit! The crowd stores on as Teila Whittaker takes a free hit from the sideline. Ms. Hoffman and Kristen Martnett watch in amazement as Teila's shot bounces to the other end of the field. This lion knows how to rally a crowd "She's always giving 110%; maybe that's why she's Pace's hero!" said Laura Matson, defense.

Face off! Laura Matson, Alianna Stentford, Tina Siemens, Charlene McManis and Lauren Mumford set up to stop the shot on net. With their formation, it's obvious that these girls are rocking to the rhythm of the team beat!

Junior Boys Volleyball

Proud players pounce to playoffs! The Junior Boys Volleyball team placed 4th during the season and made it to the first round playoffs. Despite their loss to Father Berzani, the team, made up of mostly grade nines, showed incredible spirit.

Jr. Boys Volleyball

Look at this leap frog go! On their home court, Greg Zatulovsky jumps up for the tip-off while Richard Boake and Andrew Capone stand ready. These boys are prowling, and ready for any fierce action that comes their way.

This lion goes in for the kill! Andrew Cober spikes down the ball in practice while Jon England, Richard Boake and Matt Gladman look on in amazement. Assistant coach Rebecca Varga studies the spike in order to help the boys improve.

Senior Girls Volleyball

This year, our senior girls had a terrific start to their season. They adapted well to their new student coaches from Queen's, Miss Ngai and Miss Kelly. "They've put in a lot of hard work for us," said Katrina Wright. "They're here after school at least two days a week, helping us improve our skills and grow as a team." With a wide range of grades involved in the Senior team this year, there was a good mix of youth and leadership that was integral to the team's success.

Absent: Dina Imbrogno, Tabitha Dubbelskyne, Tamara Forbes, Ms. Linkawich, Miss Kelly

Bump, set, spike! Cattie backs away from the ball as Tina takes control bumping it to Tamara who will be looking to set up King's power spiker Jocelyn. "We always try to get three touches on the ball, so that the opposition is constantly on defense," says coach Christie.

Heads up! Tamara prepares to serve against Langstaff. The Neumarket crowd looks on in awe as the King girls dominate late in the game. "Tamara is just one of a great group of girls who come through in the clutch for us time and again," says Dina.

Junior Girls Volleyball

This year's junior girls team had enough talent and leadership to challenge any team in the league. They gave an honest effort every game and practice. "It's all about having fun," laughed Ali Mumford. King's volleyball future looks bright with these girls at helm for years to come.

Back Row: Danielle Inglis, Ali Mumford, Kavita Dhamrait, Kristin Dove, Miss Gosnell

Absent: Alex Krivov, Natalie Conte, Carli Bread, Leanne Dailly, Colleen Reed, Victoria Anderson, Ms. Gospor

Practice makes perfect: Natalie Chomysky works hard on her serving during practice. Team captain Kristin Dove says, "She is an awesome player. It has gotten to the point where every time she steps up to the line we expect an ace!"

Let's get ready to rumble! Miss Gosnell fires up the team prior to game time. Alex Krivov, Caitlin Vargo, Ali Mumford and Natalie Chomysky join hands as they tell Joan of Arc how who is going to dominate on the court. "We have a great group of girls," says head coach Miss Gosnell. "They give 110% every time they step on the court. Whether it's a practice or a game, the girls always give it their all."

Junior Boys Hockey

This year's boys hockey team was thoroughly dominant each time they laced up their skates. "We rolled through the York Tournament only allowing four goals," said Coach "Fitz" "We have a balanced attack and that's why St. Joan of Arc couldn't keep up with us in the finals." We look forward to seeing more of the same next year!

Middle row: Trevor Tsuji, Matt Racenzi, Dave Munshaw, Frank Ritacco, Alex Pozdrowski, Mauro Angelucci, Kiel Greenshields

Absent: Alex Consiglio, Cam Glassow, Jan Rondeau

Sit down: Frank throws St. Theresa's forward to the ice. "If you can beat them in the alley you can beat them on the scoreboard." King City displays this old Conn Smyth quote, as their physical play has led them to an undefeated record.

Keep your head up: Trevor is looking for a pass from his defence partner Nick as Rondeau waits idle in the background. He only received 14 shots on goal in a convincing 7-1 King win. "With the solid play of my defenceman, I don't have to worry about stopping any odd man rushes," says King goalie Rondeau.

Varsity Girls Curling

The girls curling team got off to a great start. This was the first year King had a competitive team, thanks in part to the Nobleton Junior Curling Club and the Richmond Hill Curling Club who sponsored them. The girls had a chance to compete in the Gore Mutual Ontario School Girls Curling competition and after a long day and several hard fought battles they were able to come away with a first place finish. They had just as much success in league play, ranked first place in all of York Region in December. Keep up the hard work girls!

Curling team: Hilary Sutherland, Torie Boynton, Amanda Eckford, Danielle Inglis, and Ed (the lion).
Absent: Amy Cook, Briar Boynton and Ms. Linkewich

Going for the Steak: HCSS skip Danielle goes for the double raise takeout as Torie gets ready to sweep. Head coach Ms. Linkewich says "Danielle is an extraordinary player. She has unlimited potential. She is only in grade 9 and she will continue to improve her skills."

Hurry Hard: Amanda instructs Torie and Hilary on what to do as King is left with a draw to the button for 2 points and the win.

We Are The Champions...

Student Athletic Council

Ever wonder how King City has managed to create so many championship teams? Of course star players and knowledgeable coaches help, but there is another big reason the Lions have had so much success. That reason is the Student Athletic Council, otherwise known as SAC. This group of students, ranging from grade 9 to OAC, do all they can to help King City's teams. Under the guidance of the co-presidents, Cam Norman and Katie Lane, SAC raised money for athletics by selling awesome school sweatshirts and track pants. This helped to offset costs for athletes.

SAC also kept school spirit high by hosting the first annual KCSS Homecoming. The afternoon started with a pep rally and was followed by a barbecue and, of course, a senior football game.

And since a little friendly competition is always healthy, the athletic council kept the student/teacher rivalry alive and well this year by sponsoring numerous student/teacher games. The record! The teachers took the field hockey and football matches, but the students redeemed themselves on the volleyball court.

Now this is spirit! At the pep rally Meline Sradjian, Mrs. Mottola, Elena Martins, and Mrs. Christie were the ultimate in spirit, not only in their authentic fan clothing, but also with their dance moves. Mrs. Sradjian also gets in on the sports spirit, with a nod of approval and a sweater dedicated to team spirit. Although Mrs. Christie says the music is all from high school years, it must cross the generational gap as the students are into it too.

The members of SAC: (sitting) Megan Amado, Cam Norman, Danita Allick, Sarah Emmett, Karen Sekon (kneeling) Kevin Napp, Tiziana Piccini, Martha Dippo, Mark Benvenuto, Kaeli Bell, Stefano Cappuccitti (standing) Ryan Nicholas, Brendan Hayes, Ricky Bagotek, Andrew Sellar, Lauren Mintz, Leigh Jolly, Clay Costoff, Dave Dilorio, Shea Montgomery, Lindsay Park, Kasia Jersak (back) Matt Baker, Mike Monzi, Cotic Lane, Alison Mumford, Meline Sradjian, Michelle Woodhouse, and Tiffany Moraes.

Keeping Score: A dedicated KCSS student watches the junior boys' basketball game intently to be sure the score and time clock are always accurate. KCSS students always give it their all on the court, or field, but it would be impossible for them to find their way without the tremendous help they get. Behind the scenes from their classmates. From managers, to timekeepers, to line judges, KCSS students keep the games running smoothly. They sometimes even pick up the coaching duties. Whatever their role is, these students deserve a lot of credit and a big thank-you.

Artists and Athletes: Tizanna Piccini helps to get Ashley Grafe in the Homecoming spirit by painting a bright green and gold 'tattoo' on Ashley's cheek. Mr. Sebastian watches the work-in-progress with interest while Olivia Spanos waits for her turn 'under the brush'. Many students sported 'tattoos' and green and gold ribbons while cheering on the senior football team, while others were happy to be left at the barbecue table eating burgers and Krispy Kreme donuts. Of course everyone was happy to have an afternoon without classes!

Now you're in our territory! Lauren Mumford, and Marlie Scott show Mr. Mallory and Mr. Sebastian who's boss outside the classroom during the student/teacher field hockey game. Unfortunately, after narrowly missing the play-offs, the girls found further disappointment on the field this day. The teachers won the game by two goals. Now there's something the team captain, Charlene McHane, would rather not record in her journal!

Leading the Cheers: Grade ten students Sophie Garbet, Martha Dippe, and Lauren Mintz show the rest of the student body how to have fun at the Homecoming football game. The enthusiasm behind this first annual event was wonderful. The Student Athletic Council should be commended for starting this great new tradition.

M.V.P.

M.V.P.

M.V.P.

Senior Football: Matt Birks
Position: Offensive line Number: 67

The Sr. team had a number of great players this year including Noah Hobson on defence and B.J. Brown on offence, but team captain Matt Birks was a true leader and definitely the team's most valuable player. "He leads by example," says Coach Mallory.

Senior Girls Basketball: Danira Allick
Position: Forward Number: 32

Danira was by far the most consistent and versatile player on the team. "She hyped up the rest of the girls with her exciting play and was a strong leader on and off the court," says Coach Arshi Sidhu. Spectators agree that Danira makes the game fun to watch.

Senior Boys Basketball: Randy Schwartz
Position: Forward Number: 24

Randy is one of the senior team's most versatile players. He can block, rebound and shoot threes. He leads by example and always uses his head. "He plays hard every game because he wants to win every game," says Coach Cavaliere. "He is consistent and he's never satisfied with mediocrity."

Junior Football: Jeff Barbieri
Position: Quarterback Number: 12

"Anybody who pops their shoulder out of place and asks to have it popped back in so they can finish the game is an M.V.P. in my books," says Coach Miller. Jeff's always gutsy play was an inspiration to his teammates. Way to go Jeff!

Junior Girls Basketball: Jaclyn Dubar
Position: Point Guard Number: 4

Jaclyn showed her excellent skills, both on offence and defence. Not only did she play a great game on the court, but she had a positive impact off the court. "She was always focused on her part," says Coach Chvalevich.

Senior Boys Basketball: Arshi Sidhu
Position: Point Guard Number: 1

Arshi is a naturally talented player with a vast knowledge of basketball and a passion for the game. Arshi has the ability to take over the game and play at anytime. "He runs things out there," says teammate Massimo.

M.V.P.

M.V.P.

M.V.P.

Girls Volleyball: Kristin Dove
Position: Setter Number: 19

Kristin led King this year with her excellent playing skills and strong dedication. Her ability to set up her teammates kept the opposition scrambling. "She is a great leader, who always gives 100 percent," says Coach Miss Gosnell. "She is always trying to improve her skills."

Boys Baseball: Mike Cart
Position: Third Base Number: 19

Mike had an awesome year in 2002. He led King to their first York Region Championship with a .677 batting average, 4 home runs, and 27 RBI. "Mike is the complete player," says teammate Chris Hanes. "He has all 3 tools." Make King proud Mike!

Boys Hockey

When the coaches were asked to choose an M.V.P. for their team, Mr. Fitz and Mr. Kraemer thought long and hard, but were unable to decide which of their star players should be recognized. "This is one of the best teams King has seen in years; we have a solid group of guys, and it has been a pleasure to coach every one of them," said Coach Kraemer. This year's team has everything going for them. In November the boys entered the York University Tournament and showed all of York Region what they were made of. They went undefeated throughout the tournament beating St. Joan of Arc in the finals. The team then carried their success into the regular season where they walked over everyone with their balanced attack, great goaltending and stingy defence. "When I look down the bench, I feel comfortable sending any one out in any situation," said Coach Fitz. "The team's success has definitely hinged on teamwork and it wouldn't be right to choose just one M.V.P."

Boys Volleyball: Greg Zatzlovsky
Position: Middle Number: 4

Greg was the team captain and the most consistent player this year. "Greg led a young team to a strong season. He was our go to guy every match and has developed excellent playing skills," says Coach Weber.

Girls Curling: Torie Boynton
Position: Second/Coach

Torie showed leadership on and off the ice all year round. "Torie played a major role in organizing the team," says Ms. Linkewich. "She proved herself to be valuable to our team as well as to the development of the rest of the girls."

Girls Field Hockey: Charlene McMann
Position: Centre Defence Number: 13

Positive attitude, strong skills, good leadership, good natured, and reliable are all terms Coach Pace used to describe her star defender. "She's so dedicated, she even keeps a journal," says her teammate Marcie Scott.

Snowboard Team

Victory is ours!

The King City Lions varsity snowboard team had a superb season. The team was led by Catie Lane and Kevin Allen who both placed first at the King City Invitational Race held at Craighleith Ski Club in Collingwood. Helped by Catie's and Kevin's first place finishes, both the girls' and boys' team went on to first place finishes overall at the invitational race. The successes continued throughout the season, with the York Region races held on February 6, 2003. Way to go teams! You made King City proud!

Warming Up! Martha Dippo and fellow teammates warm up after racing hard on a cold snowy day. Their efforts were worth it though, King brought home both the girls' and boys' championship!

Number One! Kevin Allen poses with his with his championship t-shirt after winning the boys' competition at the King City Invitational meet.

Full Speed Ahead! King City skiers toes up the hill at their own invitational tournament. Through the thick snow the team still managed to place second.

Slewing Down: After speeding down the hills at Craighleith Ski Club, Trevor Meakin stops for a moment's rest with a well disguised female teammate.

Ski Team

Hot Results in the Cold Weather

King City continued its domination on the hills with the ski team. At the King City invitational race the boys' team came in second place overall. Although the girls' team did not place quite as strongly, they were very close to cracking the top five. The team's overall results were a great way to start the season, and put them in a great position for the York Region Race held on February 6, 2003. Congratulations again to these dedicated athletes.

Baseball

The Hard Work Pays Off

The King City Lions varsity baseball team had a superb 2001-2002 year. The team was led by the team captains, Mike Cart and Paolo Saccolotto, who displayed their confidence and leadership on the diamond. The team finished the regular season with a record of 5-1 and managed to win the school's first York Region championship in baseball.

King's pitching was very strong, led by senior pitcher Scott Rogers who had many solid outings on the mound. Top rookie, Jon Rondeau (P/1B) played outstanding baseball all year. "With many talented young players coming through the ranks, King's team is striving towards a repeat of the Region championship and a trip to OFSAA finals," noted Mr. Mallory, coach of the team.

Stealing Second: Co-captain, Mike Cart leads off from first base in the semi-final game against Dr. G. W. Williams. "Mike has been a big part of our offensive and defensive force," reflects fellow team-mate Andrew Jansons.

Batter Up! Inderpal Rai steps into the batter's box with the intention of hitting the ball out of the park.

Reach! Forward Ryan Diehl is lifted to win a lineout in a match held at KCSS. "The team was a hard hitting, tough group which helped them wear down their opponents," boasts Coach Weber.

Stand Your Ground: The front pack uses their size and strength to win an important scrum as Daniel Howard waits anxiously for the ball.

Rugby

Roughing it all the Way to the Finals

With only four returning players, the primarily rookie lineup of the King City Junior Rugby team still managed to capture the York Region title in 2002. Key players included captains Daniel Howard and Randy Schiller as well as rookies Richard Syrov and Daniel Matson. A key leader on and off the pitch was Mike Mirabelli who gave 110% all the time.

The team's overall record was 8-1, with their only loss coming in an exhibition game. Coach Weber's philosophy was "good defense so teams can't score."

The team hopes to move to the Senior category in 2003, where they hope to recapture the title.
